High School Mission Trip To Ecuador

We had a great mission trip to Ecuador with the high school students from our church. Our team of 37 led Vacation Bible School to 8 different groups including indigenous tribal people in mountain villages and Ecuadorians in the city of Ambato. The work projects consisted of painting churches and schools, digging ditches for foundations and planting trees.

We did evangelism on the streets, plazas, schools, market places, churches, prisons, juvenile halls, hospitals and orphanages. Through all the ministry efforts we saw many children, youth and adults trust Jesus as their Savior for the first time!

It was a transforming experience for all of us and God was faithful in protecting and providing for us every step of the way!

Thank you for all your prayers and support!

Jim Marian

Stewardship for Life

Giving from the Heart A Legacy that Lasts Forever

Stewardship giving is often like the pieces of a puzzle.

- How can I focus on stewardship when I can't get one car paid off before I need another?
- Am I giving enough if I tithe my income?
- When should I sell an asset and donate the proceeds? When is it best to donate the asset instead of selling it?
- Is it wise stewardship to transfer assets to a charitable remainder trust?
- If I use a revocable living trust, will I save income or estate taxes?
- Is it wise to leave the assets in my IRA to my family or should they be given in stewardship at my passing?

Puzzling? Yes. How can we fit the pieces together? Where do we start on our quest to be better stewards? This article is the first in a series on stewardship that will shed some light to guide our stewardship giving. The starting and finish line for giving? It all belongs to God. Not just our money, our home, our car, but everything! You cannot lose anything that you give to God since He owns it all (1 Cor. 4:7).

What should we give? We must first give ourselves to the Lord. The Apostle Paul commended the Macedonian Christians not only for their generous giving but because they gave themselves first to the Lord (2 Cor. 8:5).

Why should we give? God wants us to give from a willing and obedient heart. Our attitude is the key. God loves a cheerful giver (2 Cor. 9:7). Every time we give sacrificially, we give a little of our selfishness away. And when we give, others are blessed and God is glorified.
